PARKING

Please could we remind all parents/carers who park in the residential streets near to school, to do so safely, courteously and legally. We have been receiving complaints from local residents on a regular basis. We also ask, for everyone's safety, that you do not bring your car onto West Bridgewater Street due to the ongoing building work outside school. Thank you.

PING PONG RAFFLE WINNER

Taiyah-Anne – Year 2

WHO HAS BEEN DEMONSTRATING OUR CHRIST CHURCH CHRISTIAN VALUES THIS WEEK?

Reception – Amelia

TRUST: trying really hard with her work and not giving up.

Year 1 – Harry

LOVE: for showing love doing everything asked of him and trying really hard.

Year 2 – Daisy

TRUST: for never giving up with her independent writing and trusting her own abilities.

Year 3 – George

LOVE: he is much happier in school and is putting lots of effort into his work. His attendance has improved and so has his behaviour choices.

Year 4 – Oliver

TRUST: for trusting all of the adults in Y4 to help and support him and believing in himself.

Year 5 – Seth

TRUST: excellent job as a sports leader and supporting the younger children.

Year 6 – Georgie

HOPE: for showing perseverance in his work.

And the child grew and became strong. (Luke 2:40)

Happy Mother's Day!

Happy Mother's Day!

We hope you all loved your beautiful Mother's Day gifts and enjoyed a nice weekend with the family.

We managed to raise £363.00 which will be added to our fund to improve the outdoor environment around school.

Thank you for your continued support with our fund raising.
